

Sister M. Lorraine Armanavicius
June 23, 1914 – December 20, 1942

Secular Name: Stella
Entrance: June 6, 1930
Place of Birth: Pittsburgh PA
Parents: George and Helen

Elementary School: St. Casimir's, Pittsburgh, PA
High School: St. Francis Academy

Higher Education: Attended college courses in Mercy College, Villanova and Nazareth College in Rochester, NY

Ministry:

Sister Lorraine began her teaching career at St. George School in Philadelphia. In the capacity of a primary grade school teacher, Sister taught students in the 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades. Several years were spent at each of the following missions: Philadelphia, Grand Rapids, Elizabeth and Rochester.

After an illness of approximately only one week, Sister Lorraine died at the age of 28 of spinal meningitis on December 20, 1942 in Philadelphia.

“Be not afraid, I go before you.”