

Sister M. Angela Barcis
May 29, 1904 – December 13, 1961

Secular Name: Casimira
Entrance: December 26, 1919 (CSFN)
April 26, 1922 (OSF)
Place of Birth: Lithuania
Parents: John and Bertha

Elementary School: St. George, Chicago
High School: Duquesne Preparatory

Higher Education: Duquesne University
Degrees: Bachelor of Education
Master of Education

Ministry:

Casimira Bracis entered the Sisters of the Holy Family from St. George Parish, Chicago. Invested as a novice she was known as Sister M. Fidelma.

She became one our pioneer sisters when in July, 1922, with eight others, she was received into the Franciscan Novitiate at Mt. Alvernia taking the name of Sister M. Angela.

Sister Angela taught in middle school and high school in Detroit, Kenosha, Mananoy City, Cleveland, DuBois, Hartford and Pittsburgh. She also served a term of three years as community Bursar.

“I trust in God without wavering.”