Sister Magnus grew up in the shadow of St. Casimir Church on the South Side. She followed her blood sister Sister Anna Marie into the community. After Prep School at St. Francis, she began her religious life as a postulant in 1929.

Sister was active in the apostolate as teacher, catechetical instructor and Directress of the St. Francis Preparatory School. She served as principal at St. Gabriel School in Whitehall.

Her last teaching post was in Rochester, New York where she died on October 20, 1964. She was waked in Rochester and her body was then transported by the funeral director to the Motherhouse for viewing and burial.

“My heart is steadfast, I will praise you all my days.”
