

Sister Mary Amy (Amabilis) Grafas
January 3, 1913 – December 22, 1990

Secular Name: Antoinette Grafas
Entered: August 19, 1929
Place of Birth: Pittsburgh, PA
Parents: Anthony and Rose Graves
Siblings: 2 brothers and 1 sister

Elementary School: St. Casimir School
High School: St. Francis Academy
Higher Education: Duquesne University
Degrees: BS & MS in Education
B Ed and M Ed

Ministry:

Her ministry was spent in the area of teaching. Catechizing on Saturdays, church work and countless other ministries took up her time. She taught in Hartford, Connecticut, Grand Rapids, Michigan as well as in Philadelphia, Homestead, Pittsburgh in Whitehall and South Side. During her time at St. Casimir's on the South Side, she also cared for her mother. In addition to her teaching assignments, Sister Amy also served as principal and teacher in St. Mary's School in Mt. Vernon, Illinois for seven years. Sister was also Principal in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

“May birds, flowers, sun and friends, my Sisters in Christ, be around my coffin on my “goodbye” day.”

(Excerpt as written in Sister Amy's autobiography.)