

Sister M. Josephine Buksaitis
October 4, 1906 – November 21, 1996

Secular Name: Angela
Entrance: September , 1922
Place of Birth: Detroit, Michigan
Parents: Matthew amd Eva
Siblings: Estelle, Frank

Elementary School: St. George, Detroit, MI
High School: St. Francis Prep, Pittsburgh, PA
Higher Education: Duquesne University
Degrees: Bachelor in Music

Ministry:

Sister Josephine spent most of her ministerial life as a teacher. She was certified to teach music and English. Her teaching apostolate included the following places: Grand Rapids, MI; Kansas City, KS (where in addition to teaching, she also served as an organist); Harrison, NJ; New Britain, CT; and Rochester, NY. In Pennsylvania she taught at New Kensington, Moon Run, Bethel Park, Pittsburgh and the Motherhouse in Whitehall.

Upon her retirement, Sister Josephine continued to serve the community at the Motherhouse working as an archives aide in the Lithuanian Library as well as in the Ministry of Prayer.

“Forever, I will sing your praises.”